This is an excellent way to spend a Sunday in a very relaxed and splendid location. Also, as you must agree, it is very exceptional good value for your money.

Obituary. Since the last newsletter we have lost David Chapman. The family request was for a private Family Service. We send out condolences to the family.

Branch Heading. If you note Branch Heading you will observe that the words The Gloucestershire Guards Association has been added together with the addition of the Household Division colour.

With branches of Regimental Association countrywide reducing in number together with the closure of many British Legion Branches it was felt by the President, after discussion and agreement by RHQ and committee that an alteration be made to the branch title as shown above. The change was proposed, seconded and unanimously carried by all those present. It is hoped that the change might encourage former members of the Household Division to come forward and join the branch.

Recent Events.

Gurkha Lunch. Wednesday 30th May saw 48 members gather for a Gurkha Lunch at the Road Maker organised by David Leighton. Fine meal, fine company all at a very reasonable cost. Thank you David for arranging this, when is the next one?

Branch Walk – Wednesday 22nd May. Twenty-two members turned up on time to enjoy an interesting walk in the Forest of Dean. On the conclusion we sat down for lunch at the Rising Sun Public House at Mosley Green. It was such a fine warm sunny day that everyone sat outside around the lovely large pond on site. A most enjoyable day. Thank you Derek Knott whose idea it was and for making the arrangements. After we had completed the walk and were sat down enjoying a drink before our meal three Coldstreamers turned up led by the Gloucester Branch Secretary Malcolm Waters. It little leg pulling that they were not up to a walk.

Regimental Remembrance Day – Sunday 17th May. Unfortunately numbers attending this annual Church and Parade are falling. However a fine sunny day saw a coach leave Cheltenham bound for Wellington Barracks stopping at the Guards Club Windsor where your own packed lunch is taken enhanced by a pint or two from the bar. A fine service at the Guards Chapel followed by a march to Horse Guards Parade for the wreath laying. On the return journey we again called in the Guards Club for a Fish and Chip supper.

Welfare. David Leighton ably assist by his good lady Janet make numerous visits and telephone calls to those a little under the weather or to frail to attend meetings and events. To name a few. Tony Jefferies, still the same old Tony. His present claim to fame, 90 years, is that he takes no form of medication whatsoever. Does a glass or two of Scottish Water not class as medication!? Brian Gleed is making a recovery after a serious operation. John Head is on crutches following an operation. Don Whyte is still in a home being paralysed from the waist down. In the near future he hopes to have an operation in Cardiff Hospital. Fingers crossed with a little prayer that he may benefit from this. Both George and Dot Rimell have had a spell in hospital for a while both at the same time. Numerous other visits and calls have been made.

Financially your branch is very sound mainly thanks to all those who have joined the 50 Club and sell/purchase tickets for our Annual Christmas Draw.

That's it for now, hopefully see many of you at the Garden Party.

Regards all,

Colin Knight
